Southern District of New York

Re: Johnson & Johnson v. Guidant Corporation, 06-cv-7685 (RJS)

Dear Judge Sullivan:

We write on behalf of the parties in the above-referenced action to request that Your Honor permit the parties access to the courtroom prior to the summations hearing in order to set up A/V equipment and to bring into the courtroom boxes of exhibits and other materials. The equipment will permit the parties to more efficiently present their summations by quickly and clearly displaying and annotating electronic exhibits, video, and demonstratives during the course of the proceeding. Prior access to the courtroom will also allow the parties to bring into the courtroom and stow boxes and other materials prior to the start of the summations, thereby reducing disruptions once the proceeding has begun.

Subject to your approval, delivery will be made to the courthouse by a white Chevy Express van bearing an Aquipt logo and PA license plate number YYB-7243. The setup will take place at approximately noon on Wednesday, January 21, 2015, depending upon when your Honor's current proceeding ends. Two of the following employees of Aquipt will be present for the setup: Brad Smith and Jeremy Coley. In addition, Marco Carego (FTI Consulting), Richard Merisier (RLM), Jennifer Diana (Kramer Levin), Michelle Ben-David (Kramer Levin), Paul Colbourne (Kramer Levin), Jon-Michael Dougherty (Boies Schiller), and Daniel Roseman (Boies Schiller) will be present during the setup.

Aquipt will deliver and set up the following equipment in the courtroom:

- 1- Speaker System (shared)
- 2- VGA Switches (1 KL, 1 Boies)
- 3- Distribution amplifiers
- Miscellaneous VGA and power cables and strips
- 1- Printer
- Laptops for the printer (2 KL)
